

Bill of Rights for Children Whose Parents are Separated

The right not to be asked to “choose sides” between their parents.

The right not to be told the details of bitter or nasty legal proceedings going on between their parents.

The right not to be told “bad things” about the other parent’s personality or character

The right to privacy when talking to either parent on the telephone.

The right not to be cross-examined by one parent after spending time with the other parent.

The right not to be asked to be a messenger from one parent to the other.

The right not to be asked by one parent to tell the other parent untruths.

The right not to be used as a confidant regarding the legal proceedings between parents.

The right to express feelings, whatever those feelings may be.

The right to choose not to express certain feelings.

The right to be protected from parental warfare.

The right not to be made to feel guilty for loving both parents.

Source: Child Find of America

Pennsylvania
Family Support Alliance™

Safe children, strong families

2001 North Front Street
Building 1, Suite 210
Harrisburg, PA 17102

For more information contact:
717-238-0937
800-448-4906
www.pa-fsa.org